NO. 85.

CITY ITEMS.

(Extract from a letter from Jerusalem.)
"We started early to ascend Mt. Gilvel, to behold the sun gild the minarets and towers of the devout city, from the place where memory, stirred by a thousand associations, should exalt the mind as well as the eye to the inspiration of the scenes. Well was the voyager repaid for long travels, horrid roads, antediluvian terrors, squalid companionship and the importunities of beggar-thieving Arabs. Well would I have repaid you, O! man of commerce and the cruellest and well might you have been reminded of your past, for, before, pauperized and ruined, you had seen the sacred martyrs tormented for the sins of the world; eighteen hundred years ago, were those familiar figures, S. T.—1860—X. We do not know who did it, but we do doubt some poor lawless traveler, cursed by the PLANTATION BITTERS, waded to adjust their virtues in a place from whence all knowledge flows."

MAGNOLIA WATER.—Superior to the best imported German Cologne, and sold at half the price. See ad.

Tom Tindall and His Headquarters.—The friends of Tom Tindall have missed him since his departure from his absence from his usual haunts. They were not aware that during all this time he had been highly engaged in lifting up just the most despised and odious of all men to be found in the city. He has appropriately designated as "Headquarters" and hence he will hereafter issue his orders for the comfort of his many guests and the town at large.

The procession to the memorial service, Fins and Green, and Headquarters will be inaugurated by light of a grand champagne-festival to which all are invited. It will, indeed, be a feast of reason and flow of soul.

Mr. Sherman P. Whaley, Co., call especial attention to their sale at their auction rooms, No. 100 Main street, a fine collection of pianos, splendid dining, parlor and bedroom sets, all complete, of the best make of French Cities; also, a large assortment of furniture, espes., etc., and a lot of counters and sun-shades, etc., all made in U. S. oak, and the fast set of China, antiques, etc. There will also be added to the sale a lot of silver-plated ware. The sale will commence at 10 o'clock this Saturday morning, October 18th, 1868.

No clothes wringer can be durable with the use of this machine. It will be a great convenience to all who have laundry to clean out of their houses and towns together when most needed. The "UNIVERSAL" has not those fatal objections, and is WARRANTED DURABLE.

Theological Lectures by the Rev. M. R. Miller.—The last lecture will be delivered to-morrow-Sunday, the 21st, in the Chestnut-street Presbyterian Church, at 10 A.M. The lecture in the forenoon, at 11 A.M.; in the afternoon, at 2 P.M. The subject of application of the principles of the gospel, and the inquiry, whether these can come together in one, and one can unfold itself in three. The public are invited, especially the intelligent and the discriminating.

At 10 o'clock, this Saturday evening, Messrs. Stowe, Somerville, and others will be in a large number of very interesting residence sites, fronting on Second, Third and Fourth streets, south of Cedar Hill Park, and this side of the house of refuge.

Our omnibus will leave our office at 2 o'clock this day to convey all persons, free or charge, to our office of W. P. Haines' property, south of Cedar Hill Park.

Monroe Southern Co.,—
A good brick business house and lot, situated on the southwest corner of Chestnut and Shreve streets, will be sold this afternoon at 4 o'clock by J. U. Shaffer & Co.

Why is the UNIVERSAL WRINGER better? Because it has Howell's Improved Double Gear, and the PATENT STOP, which prevents the coin from entirely separating. See advertisement.

Fragrance of the Bouquet.—COLgate & C. Co.—We are particularly anxious to bring to their notice the fragrance of the bouquet.—(Nashville Union and Times.)

C. P. Remond.—Wholesale and retail dealer in Pittsburgh coal, No. 803 Third street, between Market and Jefferson. A fresh supply just received from the celebrated Cuban mines. . . . and if

The Louisville and Nashville Rail-Road—Electron.—
Through the courtesy of our friends we have neglected to notice the organization of the new board of directors of the Louisville and Nashville railroad. They met on Thursday, and the following members were present: Mr. Abi. W. Norton, J. G. Baxter, Newcomb, Hon. James Guthrie and James Whitworth were absent.

Mr. Newcomb was unanimously chosen president. A selection more in accordance with the wishes of the stockholders, and more likely to promote the interests of the road, could not have been made.

The new president is well known as one of our most active merchants and leading capitalists. He possesses energy, financial skill, and a high spirit of enterprise. Assisted by his very able board of directors we shall expel Mr. Newcomb to continue the administration of the affairs of the company as successfully as his immediate predecessor.

A Countryman Robbed.—
Thursday evening J. W. Steadman, of Washington county, came to the city with a drove of cattle. After seeing his stock properly sorted for he started down street, designing to have a check for $100 on his way home. His horse, however, to meet upon the way a couple of those characters with whom our city abounds. They informed him that they could direct him to the nearest banking house. He then told his son to return to the Shelley stock yards, and was left to the mercy of the sharpers. It was not long before these men had puffed him with drugged liquor, so that his robbery was easily effected. He awoke from his sleep of confusion minus his check and $77.35. Mr. Steadman made complaint, and Officer Derringer, Seabold, Dally and Johnson arrested John Sathers and Dallas Sanford, who will be examined in due time by the City Court.

Jack Frost.—
This gentleman, who has been a stranger in this community for some time, made his appearance yesterday morning. Yesterday was a cool but rather pleasant day.

"Sad October winds are swelling

Through ice-drawn autumn wood,

As some shading shade was telling,

That the frosty winds were blowing,

Of the frosty winds were blowing.

The beloved joyous hours,

Early but few—ever dimmed—

Blighted hopes, and faded flowers."

Jack Frost.—
The young men have been poking fun at the ladies affiliated with the Greek bent. They needn't poke fun at every body, for some of them are greater beauties than the van. The Theater Comique would become the most popular place of amusement in this city.

This afternoon at 2 o'clock a grand family matinee will be given for ladies and children at reduced prices, then the ladies can judge of the excellency of the performances.

Hon. Royd Winchester at Seventeenth and Market Streets.—
Every Democrat in the neighborhood, and every Radical who desires to hear a cool, calm discussion of vital questions, must do well to attend at the corner of Seventeenth and Market, to hear the candidate of the Democracy for Congress.

Mr. Winchester is prosecuting an exceedingly active and arduous campaign, having spoken in New Albany last night, and will speak in Vienna, Ind., this afternoon, and corner of Seventeenth and Market, as before stated, to-night. He is doing gallant service on both sides of the river, and merits the hearty support of all Conservatives and Democrats.

A Radical Satisfied.—
Yesterday afternoon on the down train over the Jeffersonville railroad, an enthusiastic and somewhat blatant Radical appeared determined to annoy the passengers by ascertaining their Presidential preferences. Finally it was agreed that they should be taken. The following was the result:

Young and Old..... 25

Our Radical friend was satisfied with his experiment, and quietly withdrew for the balance of the trip to the most party part of the train.

Awards.—
The following was the list of awards made yesterday by Breuer Brigadier General M. P. Small, C. S. U. S. A.; Warren, Mitchell & Co., 20,000 lbs. clear rib bacon sides, at 15c per lb.; John A. Dale, 20,000 lbs. hard bread, at 4c per lb.; T. L. Jefferson & Bros., 500 barrels flour, at $9 to $10; Smith & Bryan, 700 barrels flour, at $9 to $10.

Passed Away.—
The funeral of the late Mr. Alex. Craig, took place yesterday morning. The ceremonies at Rev. Dr. McKee's church on this occasion were sad and impressive. The remains were accompanied by a large number of relatives, friends and acquaintances to Cave Hill cemetery, where they were placed in the vault.

Headquarters.—
Captain Dan Parr has commenced tearing down his residence on Fourth street, between Green and Walnut, preparatory to building another handsome block of buildings alongside of those he has already built.

Correction.—
It was Mr. Henry Redwitz who was elected third lieutenant of the Constitutional Guards at Weisiger Hall last night, than ever been engaged on any occasion since the hall has been opened.

Spreading Out.—
W. Scott Gibro is enlarging his popular book and periodical store. Scott means business.

Improving.—
The newly-appointed Supervisor of Internal Revenue for the District of Kentucky, Gen. D. S. Goodloe, is now in our city, stopping at the Louisville Hotel. We are advised that his headquarters are at Lexington, Ky.

The Last Night.—
Recalled this afternoon the minstrels give their farewell matinee, and their last entertainment to-night at Weisiger Hall. Go, everybody.

Brank.—
The worst case of Grecian bend we ever saw was on Jefferson street, above First, yesterday. A chap, full of "bounce," was trying to climb a lamp-post, but he was so hunched he twisted himself around it like a snake, and fell into a heap at the foot of it. We left him fighting, confident of success.

CRICKET.

Grand Match Game Between the Second U.S. Infantry Club and the Kentucky Cricket Club

We have the pleasure of giving the score of the first cricket match ever played between a United States garrison and a civilian club in the United States. The Second Infantry, now stationed at this post, have formed a club which will soon win laurels. They need not depend because they were beaten by the Kentucky club, which has won four of the five matches they have played this season. Let them go on, and practice. There can be no surer indication of the morality of society for and indifference in many, athletic and honorable sports. If every regiment in our army, and every garrison, gave up the plantations, it would be a glorious example to the world.

In the National Unitarian conference, at New York, Reverend L. Collier, of Chicago, created a sensation by making a speech before the delegates, and declaiming that many Unitarians were going down to death and hell for a want of faith and prayer. It is evident that many of the eloquent present wished to return to orthodoxy, which was the way of safety.

Mr. T. C. Booth stood up for the Garrison, and for the Ken-tucky club, and the Kentucky club.

—We have the pleasure of giving the score of the first cricket match ever played between a United States garrison and a civilian club in the United States.

—Win. Shires, an old citizen of Cincinnati, died yesterday.

—Edward A. Pollard announces the life of Jefferson Davis, promising important facts in the history of the rebel Government never before made public. Pollard has been compelled to refrain from publishing the work, for fear of prejudicing Davis' case on his trial, now not likely to take place.

—The Presbytery of Hamilton (New School), in session at Oxford, Ohio, voted unanimously, by a rising vote, for union on the basis recommended by the General Assembly.

—On the same day the Presbytery of Oxford (Old School), voted eleven for union on the "standards, pure and simple," and five against it. Only one member was opposed to reunion; the other four were in favor of the measure, but not satisfied with the basis proposed.

—The Ohio Falls Iron Works Thursday shipped five hundred tons of mills to Nashville by river, and three hundred by railroad to the same destination.

The quality of marts turned out by these works is unsurpassed by those of any other establishment in the country.

—Words come from the planting community of Tennessee and Mississippi that it is almost impossible to have the cotton raised in either of these states.

—Henry Dearborn, 80, of New York, died yesterday.

—"Cotton" was more active and 3¢ letter in New York yesterday.

—The first Pacific, China and Japan mail from the East, weighing four tons, passed through Omaha yesterday.

—A difficulty occurred near Lowell, in Carroll county, between Simon and two brothers who resulted in a fatality.

—Linen, hats, and other articles shipped to Boston.
